

Function requirements computer store

- Store the staff information in each department (id, email, First name, Last name, salary, date of starting work).
- We store suppliers' information (ID, name, phone number, address, and email address).
- The store has more than one category.
- Each product must have one supplier.
- We have a warehouse to store the products.
- The product must be in stock in a certain quantity at least.
- Every product in the store has (id, name, warranty...).
- We store our customer information (id, email, address, name, phone).
- The store orders details with suppliers like ID, quantity, date, and total price, Tax.
- Get all orders related to a specific customer.
- We store invoices for each order and keep the purchase date, order items sold, quantity, total price, and Tax.
- All orders' payment method is cash.
- Offers are considered a category (discount).

- In the maintenance department, we store requests related to devices.
- Periodic reports on sales and employee performance to identify bestselling products and trends.